

Tuttle High School - Weekly Lesson Plans: Colonial History September 15-19, 2008 Mr. Vick

Monday Sept 15	Tuesday Sept. 16	Wednesday Sept. 17	Thursday Sept. 18	Friday Sept. 19
Objective: “Strong Start for the Nation”	Objective: “Strong Start for the Nation”	Objective: “Strong Start for the Nation”	Objective: “Strong Start for the Nation” “Nationalism/Economic Growth”	Objective: “Nationalism/Economic Growth”
Introduction: “Federal Government Established” “Dealing with Dangerous World”	Introduction: “The Nation Expands” “The War of 1812”	Introduction: “War of 1812”	Introduction: “Chapter 6 Assessment” “Rise of Nationalism”	Introduction: “Challenges of Growth” “Rise Jacksonian Democracy”
Bell Work: 6.1- Bell questions	Bell Work: DQ 6.3	Bell Work: DQ 6.4	Bell Work: Prepare Chapter 6 Assessment	Bell Work: GR 7.1
Instructional Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Americans response to political events happening in France Political parties influence on the election of 1796 Discuss the tensions between Republicans and Federalists Historical importance of the 1803 case Marbury vs Madison Discuss the purchase of Louisiana Identify the 12 Amendment Navigation of the Zebulon Pike Importance of Purchase 	Instructional Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tecumseh idea of hoping to hold on to American Indian lands Discuss why the United States declared war on Great Britain in 1812. Battle of Tippecanoe Discuss Jefferson’s passing of the Embargo Act of 1807 Napoleon’s reaction to the Orders in Council Congress passing of the Non-Intercourse Act 	Instructional Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discuss United States strategy of war in 1812 United States early success at sea against British ships Discuss Americans victory at Battle of Thames (British loses hold of Northwest Territory) Britain strategy of attacking the United States after defeating France British attack at the White House in 1814 Identify Dolley Madison Review Chapter 6 Assessment 	Instructional Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Chapter 6 Assessment Discuss how the War of 1812 helped increase nationalism in the United States What steps the U.S. took to prevent conflict with Great Britain What reasons led Spain to give up Florida to the United States Discuss how the Monroe Doctrine reflected growing U.S. power Outcome of the Convention of 1818 Discuss the First Seminole War Identify the Adams-Onis Treaty 	Instructional Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The role of the Missouri Compromise and how it played in the dispute of slavery Discuss how the election of 1824 gave rise to charges of a “corrupt bargain” and what characterized John Quincy Adams’s presidency Discuss how Andrew Jackson’s election broke with the politics of the past Discuss how the Transportation and Market Revolutions affected the U.S. economy Industrial Revolution affect on goods made in United States
Materials: Text Book pages 197-209 Power Point Presentation	Materials: Text Book pages 210-215 Power Point Presentation	Materials: Text Book pages 210-215 Power Point Presentation	Materials: Text Book pages 226-230 Power Point Presentation	Materials: Text Book pages 231-242 Power Point Presentation
Evaluation: Work Sample Class Notes Oral Response	Evaluation: Work Sample Class Notes Oral Response	Evaluation: Work Sample Oral Response Class Notes	Evaluation: Chapter 6 Assessment Work Sample Class Notes Oral Response	Evaluation: Work Sample Class Notes Oral Response
Handouts:	Handouts: DQ 6.3	Handouts: DQ 6.4	Handouts:	Handouts:
Homework: None if class work finished	Homework: Study for Chapter 6 Assessment	Homework: Study for Chapter 6 Assessment	Homework: None if class work finished	Homework: None if class work finished
Pass:	Pass: 1.1, 1.2	Pass: 1.1, 1.2	Pass: 1.1, 1.2	Pass: 1.1, 1.2